

All Skin Types

Sun protection is important. As research shows, we need to defend ourselves from the harmful rays of the sun while enjoying the great outdoors. UV rays contribute to premature aging and the potential development of skin cancer, so shield yourself with natural SPF protection from Eminence with naturally healing and calming organic ingredients to promote soft, supple and revitalized beach ready skin.

Eminence Sun Defense Minerals will keep your skin healthy, beautiful and protected.

Some other benefits include:

- Effective SPF 30 sun protection
- Water-resistant; great for exercise or swimming
